4 Calle de Lista

Barrio de Salamanca

Madrid Sept 3rd 87

My dear Mr Forman

I have not heard from you since I left Madrid for the Escorial at the beginning of June. I suppose you have received Mr Thomas's letters, which I sent to the Spanish Embassy, these are not favorable to me, as it seems he is quite of opinion that the £200 belonged to my mother, and consequently to Rawlings. Now I understand wish you to give your attention upon my last letter founded upon Note 1 Page 138 of Mr Blair's Work, which proves that the Capitals belonged to my mother's children, she only having a life interest in it I am quite sorry to trouble you so often with my pultry affairs; but you must have the Kindness to pardon me, for I am much pressed at present, not having this year obtained any advantage from my vineyards, on the contrary I have been obliged to advance money to pay the expenses of the recollection this month

If I can find a purchaser at a reasonable price, I shall feel endeavour to sell the property

I trust you are all in good health, and with love to you wife I remain Yours very truly

James Keats de Llanos

I enclose the Certificate for the month of October

Sir.

In order to avoid possible inconvenience in regard to my pension, through having to wait while two signatures are obtained on the warrant, I should be glad if you would kindly arrange to accept the signature of one of my trustees whenever the other may happen to be absent from England.

I am
Sir
Your obedient Servant
Fanny Keats de Llanos

The Paymaster General.
